Mini-Spider Bucky

I've always wanted a spider-bucky based on John "Savage Kicks" Adam's design

Unfortunately, I'm always spending so much money around Halloween, that I couldn't justify it.

But hey, cheapness is the mother of invention.

Here it is, the new, amazing, cheap mini-mini-spider bucky!

All it is is a pair of Bucky hands with the thumbs cut off.

Wire it together securely, use one of the bones for the neck, and then use a Tiny Tim skull.

I covered the wires with hot glue, just so I could keep from cutting the heck out of myself.

Here's the rest of the pics.
